CORONAVIRUS

Well, who would have thought that we would still not yet be up and running our weekly BBQ. This virus is a very contagious and clever enemy. But good things can come from difficult times, and we have fallen into a fortnightly delivery routine of food and other essentials to our very special friends around the Camden Haven. It is wonderful to have the ability to keep in touch in this way. We are always asked when we can get back together again. The answer: We don't know – it is not in our hands. But one thing is certain: We will get back together! Meanwhile it is great pleasure to continue to serve our special Community at 3 family....

Message from the Chairman

Thank you for all the Volunteers who have worked behind the scenes to maintain contact with our Community during these “different” times: cooks, packers, deliverers, donors, those who have gotten alongside others and shared the journey – THANK YOU. God operates on the principle of “gradual growth” - things changing little by little. This means we don't focus on how far we have to go, but rather on how far we have come.

Website and Facebook page

Hima has taken over the role of maintaining our website and Facebook page – see above for the links. Feel free to contribute to the Facebook page with any comments or messages of encouragement.

Winter Funding Appeal

Once again the Kew Corner Store is hosting our annual Winter Appeal to raise funds for the continuing work of Community at 3. Thanks again Staffan. People have been generous with donations of money, goods, clothing and household items. We are so very grateful for the generous hearts which support our activities, without which we cannot of course continue to assist the many members of the Camden Haven to whose faces we now more regularly see a smile.

Do you sometimes need some words that would help you?

I am involved with an organisation called Kairos Prison Ministry Australia. It has a bookmark, part of which I have copied below. You may find it helpful. If you do not possess a Bible, please let me know and I will get you one.
